++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Early rain clearing, then sunny spells.

Today:
A murky and damp start as a band of light rain gradually clears eastwards through the morning. Brightening up by midday with only the odd isolated shower. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Any remaining showers will soon ease to leave a largely dry evening with some clear spells overnight. A mild night with winds strengthening by dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
A breezy and often cloudy day with frequent showers, heavy and thundery at times. The best of any sunny spells in the afternoon with showers easing by the evening. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Remaining unsettled and windy at times. Some sunshine, although organised bands of showers merging into longer spells of rain at times too. Milder nights.
